“ Uncle Grady was a loving and generous man. He stepped in when Dad passed away, and whenever I had to call for help, he came right away, usually with Aunt Jo. He helped so many times on our well when Mom and I would have trouble, and would not take a cent of pay. He also came several times to take away swarms of bees from our yard. I will miss him greatly, and look forward to seeing him again when my time here is over.
