“ Aunt Toby, we love you. Johnny and I are sad you are gone but God wanted you to come home. There were too many years of you being in pain but now that's all gone. I have beautiful, funny memories of you. For instance, shaving your legs when you were pregnant with Carolyn. You'll always be my sweet little Aunt Toby!! Uncle Jimmy you are in our thoughts and prayers. Love, Pat and Johnny

Aunt Toby, I love you. I know there must be a big party going on in heaven today. Tell Mama and Grandma hello for me. I bet Grandma has her rake up there raking leaves. She loved doing that more than anyone else I know. It makes me sad to see you go but happy too because I know your years of sickness are all gone and you are dancing on the streets of gold. I'll see you again one day and we can have a party. Love you, Sarah Jo I'm praying for Uncle Jimmy cause he misses you so.

Aunt Toby, I remember your kind and loving nature. How you would always run up to me and give me the a big hug at family get togethers. I miss those days. I remember your hospitality while visiting you at Lk. Rosalie with papa McCans. I'll never forget the time when I was little and you made a joke about someone in the family putting hamburger buns on the top of their crutches for extra padding! I remember you and Aunt Pauline and grandma and great grandma shelling peas on the back porch. Love you and see you soon.
