JH

“ We worked with Frank aka "Jingles". He was always a gentleman. We've fished together. Loved his momma's cooking. We bought a fish camp at Camp Tiger where we met his parents. They were the sweetest people. Frank was just like them. sweet and kind. He married a sweet godly woman, Shelby. He was telling my husband at work that he had met a wonderful woman. In talking, my husband knew who she was. When he told Frank that she was his cousin, Frank laughed. They were good for each other. Few years after Shelby passed, we lost contact. Cards returned. Phone number out of order. We moved South of Ocala & here it says he was in Ocala. So close & yet so far away! It's a small world. We missed you Frank. Would have loved to hear from you under different circumstances. Rest in Peace. Gorman & Joyce Hamilton
