“Helen and I met in Manchester, Connecticut in 1967. She, her sister, Stella and I made instant friends. We had so much fun together and kept in touch for years. But as time went by and I moved to N. Central Florida we got out of touch for a few years. I am so heartbroken to hear that I can no longer talk to my friend. But would like to hear from Stella. We can get back in touch and keep our friendship going. Stella can contact me through Facebook. Or my e-mail address is jhartz60@gmail.com. I so regret that I didn't make more of an effort for the few years we were out of touch. Stella please let me know how you are. Would love to catch up on things.

“ As we grow up we learn that even the one person that was never supposed to let us down probably will, you will have your heart broken probably more than once and it's harder each time and you will break hearts too.so remember how it felt when yours was broken.you'll fight with your best friend.you'll blame a new love for things an old love did.you;ll cry because time is passing too fast,and you'll eventually lose some one you love.so take many pictures,laugh a lot and love like you've never been hurt because every minute you spend upset is a minute of happiness you'll never get back. I LOVE YOU HELEN (WITH ALL MY HEART AND SOUL YOUR SISTER BETTY)
