Mother, I have been trying all day to think of a way to wish you a Happy Birthday, and to let you know how much I miss you. I guess there is only 1 way, just to say how much I miss our nightly talks, making dinner for you everynight, then calling to make sure that you ate it, and asking if you took your meds. Then saying goodnite, sleep tight, do not let the bed bugs bite, then saying I love, love, love you, with all my heart. I only wish that I could do that 1 more time. Happy Birthday my Dear Mother, I love you.

“ Happy Birthday Mother! Christmas came and went and now your special day is here. My days lately are so consumed with memories of you and Roy and Daddy and Gerald. My life, all of ours, can't ever be the same. To say that I miss all of you sounds so unreal. It shouldn't be like this. I need more time with y'all. I love you and there aren't sufficient words to say how much. I know that y'all are having a beautiful party. Hope you like your rose.

Almost every night since you left us, I have gone out and stood in the yard looking over towards your kitchen wishing that I could see your little white head standing at the sink just one more time, and to be able to call you to say goodnight, and did you eat all your dinner, are you ready for bed and to tell you that I love, love, love you with all my heart. Mother, I have waited all day trying to think of what to say to you today, it has been a long sad day, I went over to your house and pulled some weeds and trimmed your weeping bottlebrush tree, picked up moss , anything that needed to be done, I kept looking at the front door waiting for you to come out and tell me that it is too hot to be doing anything outside and don't you need something to drink. Needless to say the door never opened and you never stepped out to check on me, I know your spirit was there. I miss you so much, I can not believe that it has been 2 years since you left us, I will never stop missing you. Sleep Well My Dear Mother. I Love you, Your Daughter, Diana

Mother this is our first Christmas without you, it will never be the same, Not much Christmas cheer in our household this year. I miss our nightly talks and laughs. I miss my Mother & Best friend. While standing there talking to both of you, I thought of this poem, and borrowed it to send to you. I wish Heaven had a phone so I could hear your voice again. I thought of you today, but that is nothing new. I thought about you yesterday and days before that too. I think of you in silence, I often speak your name. All I have are memories and your picture in a frame. Your memory is a keepsake from which I'll never part. God has you in His arms, I have you in my heart. Your Daughter, Diana*

I know that you payed a visit on Christmas morning as well. Your African Violet is so pretty and when that bud finally opens, I know it will be just as beautiful as YOU. It has really been tough lately, with Roy being so sick and me missing you so much. My heart aches cause I miss you so much, but I know that you were tired and now you are feeling mighty fine. OH Mother!!!! How I miss you and Daddy. These last few weeks have been so hard to deal with. It seems like so many years have already passed since you left us. But yet it only seems like yesterday that I asked how you were feeling, and you said "Like moody's goose." I never knew what that really meant, but I knew it meant you felt bad. Guess that is how I feel right now, because I sure don't feel good. Wish you were here so I could go lay on your sofa and you would cover me up, like so many times before. It always made me feel better when I got up. It's already been 50 days since you went to your sleep and it seems like 50 years. I hear your voice sometimes and I turn around and can't find you. I know you are here with me but not in body, only in spirit. The little bear is giving you a hug and holding my heart next to your's. Hope you feel it. I love and miss you more everyday that goes by. Tell Daddy I love and miss him too.

Mother, I miss you so much. You left us far too quick. I don't need you to help me make chicken and dumplings, but I need you to eat some. I don't need you to help make my dressing but you need to eat some of it too. What I need help with is that heart afghan pattern that we spent hours trying to figure out. I want to make me one now, but I can't without your help. What am I gonna do without you? Maybe that angel on my shoulder will guide me thru it. Will let you know if I get it. But you will already know before I have time to tell you. I hope one day I can be just half as smart as you. I love you and will talk to you later. Tell Daddy I love and miss him too. “ The memories of Aunt Marie are mighty sweet to me. She treated me like a daughter and loved me through some difficult life experiences. She was such a good cook and baker, and I remember her delicious biscuits & jam. She always had time to sit down and play with me, Diana and Sharon and I loved every minute of it. Our family has been blessed to have her love and life to share through all these years God has blessed her with. Even in her years of suffering, she cheered us on and was an encourager. Her strong faith was an awesome example to all her family. I feel joy in knowing of the beautiful reunion she is enjoying with our dear loved ones already in Heaven with our Lord.

“ The time I spent with this wonderful lady and her family were some of the best years of my life. Love would only begin to describe what she meant to me. I mostly remember the birds of course, especially her parrots, but that was only one aspect of a more than magical person, that even today, some 25 years later, I still feel keenly. I keep a treasured part of her with me at all times and it brings me no end of joy to see it reflected in her family. Like ripples on a pond, they send the best of her back and back and back again and to me at least, it makes the best of her immortal. What more could you ask?

“ I did not know Mrs. Lott. However, I'm sure she was a great lady because I've come to know her daughter and that's a mark of a mother's love. She is sleeping now In Jehovah's memory and when next we see her, she will be renewed.

“ Marie and Wade were neighbors and friends for many years. Although we drifted apart when we moved, she was a "forever" friend. So thankful I got to talk to her about a month ago. Prayers for all the kids, we love you all.
