“ Mi tia Hermelinda was a very kind, humble person. I remember when my father migrated to the states in the 70's she would do what she could to help my mother and my brother and I. Was also willing to help and open her doors to family. We were neighbors in our town and my brother and I would always find ourselves at her home and between her and my grand parents home we also had a warm meal. God has gained an angel in heaven.
