Tribute Wall

“ So many wonderful memories of the Johnson family when I reviewed the tribute photos. Love the Eastside Baptist photos. Our families attended this church with yours for decades. So sorry for your loss, but we have precious memories.

“ To the Johnson Family and Friends.

So sorry for your loss. Hugh was so good to me at Eastside and liked talking to him over the years. He loved the programs and productions we did for Christmas and Easter and other occasions, and he expressed often he particularly loved the Ensemble numbers. Hugh wrote me a Christmas letter every year for many years. I missed him when he was no longer able to regularly attend. I lost my own Dad nearly a year ago, so I know some of what you are feeling and will feel in the months to come. I am so sorry that I cannot be there Wednesday but I'll be thinking about you.

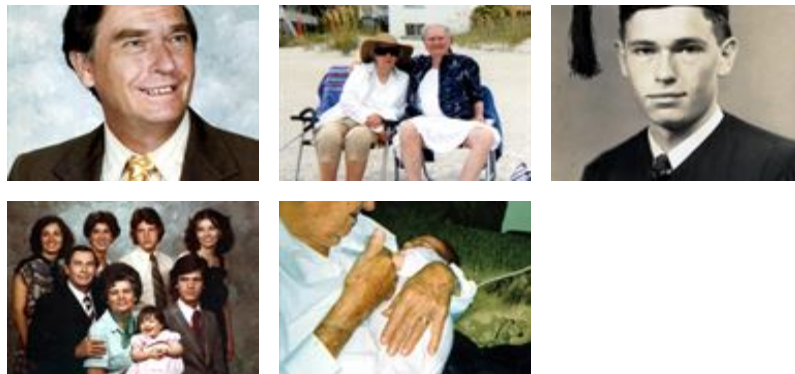

From one of our Ensemble numbers, I offer these words :

*"One thing you need and nothing more,
To hear the whisper of your Lord.
Be still and know that I am God.
Rest in the arms of My embrace."*

“ I will always treasure the times our families had the pleasure of sharing. Conversations with Uncle Hugh were always so special for me. He will be missed, but I take refuge in the KJV Bible track he sent to me years ago, which contained on of my favorite Bible verses...Psalms 27:1, "The LORD is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? the LORD is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?"

RIP, my friend.
