

Ian Cook

October 8, 2009

COOK, Ian, 69, died peacefully on Thursday, October 8, 2009 at the Health Center of Plant City, where he received wonderful care and attention after many years of suffering from Alzheimer's and Parkinsons disease. He was born in Hull, England in 1940. He was a successful Civil Engineer, in the fields of tunneling and Hydro Schemes, for many years, and then retired to Florida nearly 20 years ago. After retirement, he was Chief of Security at South Florida Baptist Hospital in Plant City where he spent many happy years until he had to leave due to health in 2007. He is survived by his wife of 45 years Muriel, and by loving brothers, sisters, nieces, and nephews, and many other loving family and friends. Graveside services and interment in Boston, Massachusetts. Memorial contributions may be made in his name to a Humane Society of your choice and/or, his favorite, Best Friends Animal Society, 5001 Angel Canyon Road, Kanab, Utah 84741. He so loved his pets and all creatures.

“ Loving memories of a friend from schooldays, a good friend for many years, a godfather and uncle. We have been fortunate to share so much with Ian for so long, since Barry was first welcomed in to his family. We have all felt much benefit from his kindness and consideration. We will all miss Ian greatly and our thoughts and prayers are with Muriel and family.##imported-begin##Barry,Eileen,Ian and Gareth Jagger##imported-end##

“ Muriel: My thoughts are with you and you have 45 years of fantastic memories with your soul mate. My favourite memory was going to the retired horse farm in Gainesville, with you and Ian and my daughter, and spending a fantastic day. You know his friends were waiting at the Rainbow Bridge, be very sure of this. Christeena and Tarra McKnight##imported-begin##Christeena Regner McKnight##imported-end##

“ Muriel, my heart goes out to you and your family and pets. You are both dear friends. Ian left me with many great memories of pool-side chats, wonderful company over dinner, and just the pleasure of knowing you both. I send hugs to you Muriel. You have shown us all what Love is all about. Ann Dore###imported-begin###Ann Dore###imported-end##
