“ My Aunt Ida Mae was always a very strong woman in my life. My fondest childhood memories have her in them. She was always big part of my life growing up and as an adult.
I use to spend weekends and summers at her house. We always had hot chocolate and toast for breakfast. I remember walking to the store with my cousins to buy her an RC Cola and sometimes she would share a little with us for going. We always had to take naps when I stayed there and we would get in trouble sometimes because Donna and I would be giggling instead of napping. My mom would always go by my Aunt Ida Mae's anytime we went to town and Aunt Ida Mae and mom would sit on the front porch and talk for hours. I loved going to her house and playing with my cousins for while they visited.
I was always excited at Christmas time to see my Aunt Ida Mae because she always bought me something and I would be so excited to see what that would be because I knew it would be something fun.
Aunt Ida Mae was there for me throughout my whole life she never let me down. I know I disappointed her sometimes but she always loved me through it as her own. The distance in miles from where we lived may have kept us apart these past few years but she has always been in my heart and always will be forever.
I love you Aunt Ida Mae ..... Sheila Taylor
