“ Aunt Rita was not just my aunt she was also my second Mother and she was proud of me even when I messed up, She was always there to listen to me when I had know one at all to talk to. She was a rock that I could always lean on and I would have never learned alot of life's lessons without her in my life. One time she found out that I was going down to the river bank and smoking, She asked me about it and I denied it so she said ok but you better not son. So the next next day down to the river I went thinking the coast was clear not knowing she was even around the area I hide in my spot and the next thing you know I hear a voice from behind me say... Cigarette Son it was her and yes I learned a lesson that day, Boy did I ever. That was just one my favorites of many. I love You and I promise You will never ever be forgotten. God now has a very very special lady in heaven with him.
