“ Iris was such a beautiful and sweet person. I spent many of my summer vacations at her house when I was a teen and stayed with them when they came to Alabama. We had many good times and much fun together. I loved her so much.

“ Butch was a beautiful woman inside and out. She was a very good friend to my mother (Doris) and always had kind words to say to me. The last time I saw her was in Brandon at her place of employment. So very sorry to hear of her death. Love to the family she left behind.

“ I so loved this precious beautiful woman. Many years ago we worked together teaching children's church and this memory is vivid in my mind. We were teaching the children a song and it was titled, "Stop Your Going The Wrong Way". Oh how we wanted the children to know God has a plan and not to go the way of the world! To me she was more than a friend she was family. We got separated through the years even as family and friends do but I will never forget her precious sweet spirit and her love for her family and others. Once also when I was going through something with one of my sons she told me if you want to stay close to your sons love and accept the wives they choose. Wisdom for sure. I love you Iris and I miss you already! Someday we will stroll over heaven together and hopefully see those young people we shared with about Jesus and His Love and His way! Love and prayers to all the family!

I remember Iris but had not seen her in many years. I remember her as being such a sweet lady. She and my mom was such good friends and always had so much fun together. I remember going to there house when we lived in Fl. in 1957. And I loved my cousin Bill so much. So sorry for your loss.
