“ We may not have been able to see each other much, but just knowing you were there, and knowing the love you had for your family and life gave me peace. You loved with everything you had, Be free my dear cousin. You will always be in my heart!

Maxine, Paul Everet, Wesley and families, she will live on in your memories and in your hearts, as she was a precious part of you all. To all her precious children, you will never be apart from her. She is with you always, keep her loving soul alive!
