“ Ann and the family. Jack and I were first cousins. Lost contact 50+ years ago when I moved away from home. We were just reunited a few years ago and talked on the phone. All my sympathies to you Ann and your family. He will be greatly missed. But now in a place of peace and no pain with our God. I am so terribly sorry for your loss. I know when we talked how much he loved you. He will always be with you Ann.
