“ My brother Jim will be missed. His no nonsense attitude toward Life helped me get my head out of the clouds. My favorite childhood memory is one day Jim and his friends were up in the attic and I climbed up to see what they were doing. I saw what I thought was a slide which was the ceiling to the stair case. He and his friends spent the next several hours trying to make it look like his baby brother had not cracked the ceiling by sliding down it. I don't know who got in trouble for that one but I didn't.
