“ Always been thinking of you... seems a lot more these days. Life is complicated sometimes, things just don't always make sense. You leaving this world is one of them... I'll never understand why... but I appreciate the moments of my life I had with you. Seems just like yesterday you and I were going over flash cards to study for your state exam... You taught me a lot about character... I'll carry it with me until it is my time. Until we meet again my friend... I miss you.

“ Mike Shirley and I were Justin's Driver Education teachers at East Bay. We both have fond memories of him. He is unique if after 32 years of teaching he is one of the few students that I remember that vividly. What a nice young man he was. God bless you and I am so very sorry for your loss. Mark Sims

“ I hope Rick told Justin a funny joke as soon as he meant him in heaven! I'm sure he was standing by the gate with a big smile on his face, welcoming Justin home. Praying the Lord gives peace to his wife and family.

“ you were the guy who could get it done, strong, compassionate, treated your lady like a princess! You could get sprayed in the face with mace without a word or complaint, you took what life threw at you and made something beautiful. You made a little girl so very happy. Taking Lauren on 4 wheeler rides, giving her one of your horses and taking her to chucked cheese. She will never forget you, I guess it's fair to say no one will! You were a selfless guy who made everyone feel at ease. We all admire your courage and you leave us with a challenge to live as you did... all out. Thank you Justin for taking such good care of Jamie and loving her with all your heart.

“ it said to write my favorite memory about you here, but i have so many that i can't choose just one. you were and will always be one of my favorite people in the world. i've known you for almost 17 years and we never once got mad at each other. you always knew how to make me laugh. i'm going to miss everything about you, your smile, your stupid jokes, the way i could always run into your arms and get the biggest hug ever. you mean so much to me and i will always and forever cherish every moment we shared together. i love you brother!
