“ You have left all of us with a missing piece to our puzzle that no one else will ever be able to fill. Your smile was contagious and always greeted everyone with a hug. I will miss them hugs and kisses. I am proud I choose you as my stand in father to walk me down the aisle on my special day. I hope you continue to be with us In spirit, we know you wouldn't want to miss our fun times. RIP Dad Love you always, til we meet again..

My brother, my friend my confidant .. we shared good times and bad, we laughed and we cried. We shared secrets that no one else knew. I could tell you things I never shared with another soul. I now have a hole in my heart that will never be filled. Our times were not the big party times with lots of people and friends, our times were the quiet times, just the two of us sharing quiet moments together. I have memories of fishing and drinking all night so far away that land was a distant memory, then watching the sun come up over the ocean long before the rest of the world was awake, that was our time, Our favorite time of day. I have memories of drinking and dancing and playing pool to our favorite old 70's tunes and of just sitting for hours talking about life's good times and bad, talking of what is and what could have been. I will miss those times. I will never hear those songs again without you in my heart.

I love you and My life will never be the same without you.

“ He was my brother and I love him still. He was ALWAYS there when I needed him. He helped me move several times. He pressure washed my house several times. He painted an apt. we lived in. He painted the trailer I live in now. He would never take any money for it. He has 3 sons and I can count on them too. They were there to help all of those times. Growing up we didn't have a lot, but 1 thing we did have was love an one another. Our lives was so happy growing up together and playing outside under the water hose in the summertime. I will miss him terribly but I will ALWAYS love him.
