

Mr. James Taylor Rogers

July 25, 1937 - January 28, 2024

James Taylor Rogers was born at home on July 25, 1937 to the late James Tugalo and Virgie Simmons Rogers in Lutz, Florida. He passed from this life on January 28, 2024 at 86 years of age.

He is preceded in death by his parents, a brother, Robert Rogers; a daughter, Marcie Howe; and a granddaughter, Ashlee Tindal.

Survivors include his wife of 55 years, Christine of Plant City; his children, Dan Rogers (Becky) of Athens, Texas, Greg Rogers (Pam) of Tuscaloosa, Alabama, Debbie Shuman (Rob) of Englewood, Cyndi Bohner (David) of Franklin, North Carolina, Jodie Lewis (John) of Plant City, Jadie Gries (Kevin Lance) of Plant City, Karen Minor (Kenny) of Fleming Island, and Patrick Zambito (Debbie) of Anna Maria Island; 20 grandchildren; 20 great-grandchildren.

Siblings, Donald Rogers (Martha) of Brandon, Ronald Rogers (Sue) of Zephyrhills, Wendell Rogers (Celia) of Brandon, Vivian Mirk (Patrick) of Tampa, Elaine Lister (Sonny) of Plant City, Raymond Rogers (Pam) of Plant City, Willeva Van Den Bogaert (Ludo) of Plant City, and Dana Fortinberry (Jim) of Plant City; and numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

Taylor was an incredible individual. He had many interests and could talk with anyone. He was an avid sports fan, as he enjoyed watching boxing, wrestling, baseball, college, and professional football. He also loved to hunt and fish, and rarely ever returned home empty-handed, or at least a story to tell about “the one that got away”. Taylor loved to travel, crisscrossing the US, Canada, and Mexico. He loved the art of mapping out a trip and rarely ever got lost.

He proudly served in the US Air Force, being stationed at Lowry Air Force Base. His career was in the steel building erection industry. When he wasn't building, he could be found most nights and weekends enjoying his true passion, playing country music. Taylor and Chris were an accomplished Country Music duo. They won many awards for their music, and played music venues across the state of Florida. In his later years, he revelled in his children, grandchildren, and great-grandchildren. In fact, he and Chris opened their hearts to even more children, watching Anthony and Nicholas Lodico from birth to school-age. Taylor will truly be missed at the annual family Thanksgiving gathering he and Chris hosted at their home. Often times there would be over 100 gathered together to share a meal, tell stories, laugh, and play/watch games.

“ People come into your life for a reason. And you came into the boys' life since they were born. You were their Baca. And you treated my boys like they were your own. My boys loved the lawn mower rides and the fishing trips. You taught them so much. They love to create and build things because they would watch Baca build things in the backyard. We will miss you and you will never be forgotten. We love you Baca.
