“ The community lost a fine man and I lost a friend. Mr. Rogers always was willing to help someone out in a time of need including myself.

I'll miss stopping by with a mess of Ricky Gullett mullet and our visits and talks. I'll also miss his garden full of collard, and mustard greens and monster cabbage. I rarely left without a mess of greens and some great advice about life in general.

He loved his family, his cows and fishing. He was a real cowboy and while he didn't walk around in boots and a cowboy hat, he knew more about cattle than anyone I knew. And when it was time to haul cows to the market he always told me just come get the trailer, just bring it back as clean as it was when it left the yard.

Mr. Rogers was also a moral and honorable man I learned back in 2012 when he came to buy some cows from us. He asked what I wanted for three yearlings and when I told him he told me my price was too low and gave me a better price. Most people couldn't have loaded them fast enough but not Mr. Rogers. He was going to be fair. In a world full of people thinking only of themselves, he was a breath of fresh air.

I miss him already although my sadness can't compare to Mrs. Joyce, his daughter Debra Rogers Morrell and the rest of the family. Thanks for being a friend, a fine Christian man and treasure to our community.

Sitting around with the family Sunday evening at the house his wife said, he'd loan out anything but her. Through her tears, she smiled and laughed. We all laughed. We needed to.

Rest in peace Mr. Rogers, till we meet again. And save me a few mullet and a bowl full of collard greens.

“ We all should be so lucky to have known a great man like Pop. A man of his word who would give you the shirt off his back. A man who loved unconditionally, a heart of gold, a man who always seen the good in everyone. How lucky I was to be apart of his family, how grateful & blessed I am to have had the chance to call him Pop 💜💔💔 Pop you will greatly be missed 😭

I'm so glad I got the chance to meet him last spring and Michael got some one on one time with him, especially since Pop put him right to work! I wish I would have been able to know him better, though I know there will be stories for years to come. So sorry we aren't able to make it but our thoughts and prayers will be with all of you.

We were blessed to be James and Joyce's neighbor these last eight years. James always had a smile to share, a hand to lend, good advice to give and a beautiful heart to share. We share in your loss and pray for God to heal your sorrowful hearts...and He will.
