“ Jim was a friend that I worked with for over 30 years. He was also the best boss I ever had. He was easy to work with and when he became my boss he was easy to work for. He was always fair and treated everyone the same way. I was glad to have his friendship and influence in my life. I appreciated when he came out of his way to see me here in kentucky after we had retired. God comfort his family in their loss.

“ Jim was such a sweet and lovable man. He was a great friend to my family and knowing him and the family for almost 30 years has been such a blessing. One time he was able to take my husband fishing which made my husband's day and we loved his Facebook posts. I loved coming to visit and seeing Jim & saying 'Honey I'm home' and giving him a big hug. One memory of mine when I was visiting and we enjoyed watching Ron White, the comedian on 'Blue Collar Comedy Tour'. Jim enjoyed it so much & laughed so much that I think I gave him the video for Christmas. My thoughts and prayers are certainly with Vickie & the family because I know Jim will be truly missed and never forgotten. All my love! Julie

“ Such a great friend to me and my husband John. Whenever we ran into him at Post 44 or visited at his house, the whole family was so welcoming and happy to see us. He always was sitting outside at 44 having a beer and a cigarette. I will always remember him as such a nice person. We'll miss you Jim. Rest in peace.

“ Papa Jim...enough said! When I was in high school I was a troubled team with a dysfunctional family! Mama Vickie and Papa Jim were always there to listen, give advice and take us in when needed. That home was ALWAYS safe and so many kids hung out there. Missy is one of my good friends and that how I met her amazing family. The world lost a good one that's for sure. I am so sorry for everyone's loss and wish I was close to attend the service. Even though I haven't seen the family in years (except on Facebook) I know without a doubt if I showed up at their home sad, hurt or in trouble they would be right there for me. You will be missed Papa Jim. Rest easy in Gods arms
