“ I remember mr. Jimmy always working hard to provide for his family and a smile on his face every time he was seen. Growing up with the Williams children you always were treated as one of the them. I have a lot of fond memories. No more suffering. Rest in peace. A special angel has entered in to heaven.

“ I loved my Uncle "Bo" dearly he was such a pleasure to have in my life and to grow up around. He loved his sister's with such pure devotion... When he would visit my mom he would always enjoy talking for hours about the good old days in Plant City and Strawberry pickin'/sellin'... My mom would say that his visit's made her day... He was a wonderful uncle and I will miss him very much...

So sorry to hear about his passing. Jimmy was such a wonderful man and he had a good woman, Melba by his side..I know he is gonna be dearly missed and my "Deepest Sympathy" to his family and friends. I have some good memories with Jimmy and Melba when I was growing up as a child and will never forget them. I know his family has some wonderful memories also..God be with you all at your time of grief.
