“ Hopewell Funeral Home created a Tribute Video in memory of Mrs. Janie Kay Lamb

Hopewell Funeral Home - June 19, 2014 at 09:05 AM

This tribute was so beautifully Kay. She was and will always be all about her family. She loved you each one unconditionally. The last night we spent in Florida before moving here to North Carolina, she and Raymond brought such a grand supper for us to share as we packed. We ended up not packing but sitting together, laughing, talking, sharing and just loving each other while sitting around the table for hours and hours, till it was time for them to go . Kay and I didn't want to say goodbye but it was time. We both knew I had to get back to work. I hurt and miss her with you. She was so complicated and yet she yearned for 'simple.' This Christmas she will be having the most Glorious One Ever with her Saviour. God bless you and give you peace that passes understanding. Love to you all <3 , patti & Butch

“ Dear Family, I bought a card yesterday to send to you. It was the first thing I have been able to do. I sat here and watched the tribute and thought over and over, what a Beautiful, loving ,lovely Lady ,our Kay was always. I have held the bracelet she bought for us ,one for her and one for me- Sisters ? over and over lately. I have missed her much since we moved to NC? The last night we spent in Florida ,we spent it with Kay & Raymond. It was a wonderful evening and the last time we were together. There was and will only ever be one Kay ? I loved her dearly and it is evident from reading these tributes so many others did too. You all look just like her?, She loved you unconditionally. Being a Mom, a wife, a daughter and friend ,all were her joy. We love you, Raymond & Kids. I will forever be thankful for all the crazy ,laughing conversations ,she and I had. (the ones Raymond offered to pay me for) What a wonderful friend ? I will always miss you,my adopted Sister, Our Kay ? I will always love you, my friend, the tears we cried together, what memories, we could always think of something to laugh about.. Thank you for all the laughter ?

“ I was at swim practice one day in high school, they told me that mom was having a baby so I left early to see Brandon born. She wanted me to witness the event. It was pretty awesome to get to see my little brother be born, I will never forget it. The doctor stumbled and almost dropped him on the floor, but he caught him right in time I am not even sure if daddy saw it or not. Quite an experience.

“ My Mom had a heart of GOLD. She always put her kids first and went out of her way MANY times for all of us . She will be missed by everyone she knew and we are all better people because of her and my dad. Please Pray for our family because we are all heartbroken and devistated...

Stacey Lamb - June 12, 2014 at 08:48 PM

“ Mrs. Kay was so sweet all the time. Some moms that came in contact with my crazy grandma treated me differently ..but not Mrs, Kay. She made all children feel special and she was a lovely soul. God bless her. Its our loss and heavens gain. God speaks of the glories of Heaven in such a way that we are told weep for birth and rejoice for death.

“ I spent many days/ nights at their house as a child and teenager. Mrs.Kay you will be missed... you were another mom to all of us, so easy to talk to and never passing judgement. To the family my deepest sympathies and know that I'm praying for you all daily and Our family loves you all very much!

Katrina O'Neal - June 12, 2014 at 07:23 PM

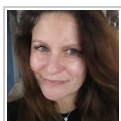

“ Sally Mae you were the little sister I never had, you chased me and Larry everywhere, growing up. We rode many miles together in the back seat with our moms looking for our dads, and those RC's and Moon Pies for breakfast never hurt us. You loved it when my Teengie was born we put her in bed with us and shared tangerines with her. Only a little juice for her! Oh my goodness the things we have shared. No one knows. I am so sorry I have not been there for you these last years. I know the suffering you have endured in this life. You told me you couldn't remember your daddy, well he is holding you in his arms tonight. What a good man he was. I love you very much Miss Kay and will see you in the twinkling of an eye. Love Joyce Styron Barrington
