I Knew Mrs. Mary Joyce Owens Pederson Ever Since August Of 1999, With Her Being A Crossing Guard Right At The Intersection Of North Franklin St. and English Streets. I Knew Her, Because Although I Was Standing By Woodrow Wilson Elementary School, Which I Went To For Five Years and Loved, I Was Starting My First Year Of Junior High At Tomlin and I Was Waiting For My School Bus Number 2464 and My Bus Driver Was Mrs. Sharon Stallworth and The Next Year It Was Bus Number 2644 and Those Bus Drivers Were Ms. Lori Proctor and Ms. Tina Kempf, Who All Three Are Very Best Friend's Of Mine. My Very First Memories Of Mrs. Joyce Was Me Waiting For My Our Bus Driver To Come and Take Myself and The Ones At Our Bus Stop To Tomlin. I Remember The Very Last Time I Ever Saw Her and That Was Almost 5 Years Ago. It Would Have Been Next Month On Thursday November 10th. The Last Time I Saw Her Was At Woodrow Wilson's 85th Reunion That They Had On The Evening Of Thursday November 10, 2011 At Wilson and I Was Sitting At The Table With Her and A Very Best Friend Of Ours Who Taught At Woodrow Wilson For Many Years and That Is The Very Lovely Mrs. Margie Booth Evans. Mrs. Pederson Was Always A Very Sweet Lady All The Very Blessing Of 17 Years That I Knew Her and What A Very Great Blessing It Was and Always Be To Know Her. I Will See The Very Sweet Angel In Heaven Again Where She Is Now. I Love You Mary Always My Sweet Friend Mrs. Mary

“ Jean Ann & Curt,

Mark and I were so sad to hear the news of Mrs. Weaver's death. I have so many fond memories of Robin Drive. I told my mother how Mrs. Weaver would take Curt and me to school at Jackson when we would miss the bus. I cannot attend the service due to work, but I will be with you in spirit and will be continuing to pray for you.

I love you!

“ DO NOT AND I REPEAT DO NOT TAKE DOWN ANYTHING I POST UP HERE IN HONOR OF MY VERY LOVING PRECIOUS SWEET Aunt Jean Frances Barker Weaver!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! Someone took my things in honor of My Very Loving Sweet Precious Aunt Jean down yesterday and that was very disrespectful!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I put them all back and I put them up there in the first place and they wasn't supposed to be taken down. That's not for The Funeral Home and it's not for her families approval!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I'm not trying to be rude or abrupt, but that is in honor for My Aunt Jean Weaver and her Angel Homegoing to be with Jesus!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I have a right to put up whatever kind of tributes and/ or candles and how ever many I choose!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I picked that out for her and it's not hurting anybody or anything!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! DO NOT TAKE IT DOWN AGAIN and if anybody at Hopewell Funeral Home or anybody has an issues, then you should have my number. It's still the same number, you call me! DON'T TAKE NOTHING DOWN!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!! I Love You My Very Much Always My Very Loving Sweet Precious Great Aunt Jean Weaver!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

“ Where do I start? She was a great wife & mother & she fed all the neighborhood kids. I always felt welcome at her house & she made an out-of-this-world coconut cake. She always lived her Christian values & raised two great kids. Many of my fondest childhood memories were made on Roux Street. So thankful to have been blessed all these years with Mrs. Weaver. She will surely be missed, just like her sister Betty June, aka Aunt Betty. Rest in peace sweet friend. --Will Magann
