Dear Uncle Jack and sons Ricky, Randy and Andy.

I am saddened by the loss of your wife, and mother--my Aunt Jan. She endured so much through the years and yet triumphed in spirit over and over again. I have a deep appreciation for her strength which surely must have been sustained by love.

“ To my dear Uncle Jack, Ricky, Randy and Andy,

My sons and I have been deeply saddened by this loss. I will miss all the wonderful conversations I had with Aunt Jan, her incredible sense of humor and personality, and most of all the love she was never short of. My sons have shared their memories of her energy and exuberance, and the joy they felt in her presence.

I extend our love and deepest condolences to all of you.
