“ I was eight years old when Jeanne married my uncle, Charles. The family was changed forever! In my eyes, Jeanne was beautiful, dramatic, and glamorous. My favorite memories are of trips to the beach with Jeanne and the children. After a busy day of life guarding and helping with the kids, Jeanne and I would sit outside and talk. She would patiently listen to my teenage chatter and make me feel as though I were smart and funny. I adored her!

One of Jeanne's most memorable characteristics (to me) was that she was not intimidated by my formidable Grandmother. That alone put her in a class by herself!

I have always admired Jeanne's spirit, honesty, and energy. She was a wonderful role model and I am so thankful to have shared my life with her.

We will be keeping you in our daily prayers and will look forward to visiting you at a later date. There must be one great party going on right now in heaven. . “ My husband and I planned our honeymoon trip to include a visit with Jeanne and Charles when we married in 1958. Jeanne and I hung out at the club pool and the guys played golf. We had such a wonderful time we stayed an extra day and night. That is just one little example of the sparkle Jeanne put into life. She called and mailed cute cards when we moved and I was missing friends. Jeanne encouraged and supported many of us faithfully. Heaven is in for a treat including musical talent and joy.

Love,
