“ Lil' Lynn, WeI will ever be able to make another deviled egg or watch a Chipmunk movie ("I'm waiting for the rinse cycle!") or see a little red and white fishing bobber without thinking of you. You may be gone from here but you are forever in our hearts, We are so glad you found happiness with John and realized your dream of being married.

We will meet again one day but until then we have pictures and fond memories to warm our hearts and remind us that love comes in all shapes and sizes.

“Jerilyn, since the first day the Lord put you in my life you were so very special. You were like a little porcelain china doll. Though you were only suppose to have lived 4 days the Lord blessed me so much with 42 years filled with cherish memories of great times. Though there had been times of tears with your breaks and pain of surgeries you endured, always with a smile never complained. Your friends were countless and everyone that met you loved you so much, I miss the several times a week that we talked to each other, its so hard now not to pick up the phone and call you to see how you and John are doing. But I would never bring you back here even though I miss you so much my heartaches deep inside, for I know you have a new body perfect in stature free from all informities, you and Lois are having a great time with the Lord and brings me comfort in my heart and know that we'll all be together one day and I know you will meet me On the Other side of Jordan. Until that day I will always cherish and love you forever. MOM

“Jerilyn, my darling little wife. Even though you were small in statue you were a giant to me. You made me feel like a whole man when I was feeling sorry for myself. You were a ray of sunshine when it was raining and a bundle of happiness when things were sad. I felt like no one would ever care for me sense I am handicaped and then you came into my liife and proved me wrong. You lived life to the fullest and I will always love you for what you were to me and others. I feel you are watching over me and I will be with you again when my time comes. Love you my loving sweetheart. Your husband John

“ My cousin Jerilyn provided me with wonderful childhood memories. She was a shining light in our family and whenever we would gather for celebrations, even as young as I was, I remember the love and kindness she would bring. Jerilyn was a fighter who was determined to live her life as she wanted and the joy she brought to us all will live on in my heart forever. I regret that I hadn't been able to see her in years but grateful that I was able to reconnect , if even a little, via Facebook. I only wish I could have hugged her one more time. I'm praying for God's comfort for John and the rest of the family, including my dear Aunt Linda who I miss so much, and my cousin Renae who is a beautiful wife and mother and was a wonderful sister to Jerilyn. The Strawberry Festival won't be the same this year without her but I know she's enjoying it just the same. God bless you Jerilyn...I can't wait to give you that hug! Tina (Bargeron) McKeever
