“Life of the party” words can not be any more true. Things will never be the same without you here and times will be forever changed. I know your looking down on Tiff and the girls and you are so very proud of how strong they have been through all of this. Your presence will forever be missed and your memory will never fade. I hope I have stood up to your expectations of me these last few days, as we know you had high ones. No matter what you and I went through we were always there for each other when things got tough. I'm gonna miss you so much and all of your sporadic phone calls for the stupid things. Growing up with you was fun but growing into an adult with you was better! You taught me alot, even though I stained the white carpet with Seagram's and tried to pee in the spare bedroom! I love you always and will miss you forever!!
