My heart goes out to Kathy and the whole family on their loss of a really wonderful man, husband, father, grandfather, brother and uncle.

I will always remember my Uncle Randy for his infectious smile and good humor and for his introducing me to modern “rock-n-roll” music when he played “Wipeout” on his guitar back when I was just a kid. I was mesmerized and developed a life-long love of music from then on.

He’s at peace now, in a better place, and free of pain and suffering, and for that I thank God.

I miss Randy greatly for numerous reasons. But I am so grateful that this is not goodbye, but a see you later. For I know he is with our Lord and Savior. What a testimony he lived. He knew he was not perfect, but he knew his savior personally. Thank you, Kathy for being an example of an amazing wife who loved and cared for him and continues to. We love ya!
