“ Lamar whom ive known all his life,and my sweet, MRS. English ,who was my home ec teacher ,sowed my daughters junior royalty dress ,and just a sweet beautiful women,I know you are probably in shock and are hurting so much ,im sorry for the lost of someone that i knew for many ,many years,was around alot at one time of my life,and will never forget my memories of Eddie. We cannot lean to our own understanding at times like this ,But we have someone that we can come to at all times and for sure times like this and he will give us strength,courage,and understanding ,hold us ,cry with us, and most of all carry us when we feel like we cant do it no more ,and his name is JESUS CHRIST THE SON OF GOD. I do pray that God will give you what you need each and every second to be able to get stronger and to mend and heal your broken hearts. Thank you heavenly farther for your Grace and love for my helping my friends , i love you ,Kathy [howard] Harrell

“ God bless the English family during this difficult time. I think so much of Lamar and Mrs. Vivian English...missed out on knowing Eddie, though he played basketball way back when at TCHS when my brother Dwight played. Now they can shoot hoops in heaven:) ...So very sad to lose a loving brother, son, grandfather, Uncle, and friend. I am certain Eddie was and is loved. To the English Family, I'm keeping you all in my thoughts and prayers. Much love from Nasi and me. For ever and ever, Amen!
