“ And the Lord said, I need another Guardian Angel in Heaven so he called Earl home. As I said when the Lord called my brother home early, it is not for us to question why but to rejoice in the fact that Earl passed through the Pearly Gates to take his place at the side of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Keeping the family in my prayers.

“ There are no words to fully describe this man I knew and worked with. He was always there with a smile, a kind word, and sincere advice. He would always go above and beyond to help others and to get a project done. Earl had a way of looking at things in a positive way and he made you feel comfortable and always gave thanks. I am so grateful for knowing Earl for 18 years and I will miss his smile, his humor and his kindness. Rest in eternal peace my dear friend.
