“ My son- Brandon Hicks- had some very special neighborhood friends growing up, and Jesse was one of them, always smiling and happy, full of life and adventure, so much fun to have around. He meant so much to so many. It's a horrible feeling knowing that someone that you watched grow up is now gone way too soon. But we are all so thankful to have known and shared time with Jesse and just have him 'hang around' with Brandon. You will NEVER be forgotten young man! Rest with our Lord until we see you again (is there fishing & hog hunting in Heaven?!? If so, we know you'll be having extra fun!!!).
