“ He was on special man and a proud Marine. He loved his family and one dedicated wife that that did everything to take care of him, even neglecting her own needs for him, his son and daughter-in-law did so much to keep him entertained, active as possible, and healthy. He loved to get out and about and everyone of them keep him going. He will be missed by many. Goodbye my dear friend.

“ Uncles always hold the most special places in our hearts, but you... You were the absolute best uncle any one of us could have had. You are so loved and have my whole heart for my whole life, Unk. To my aunt Phyllis and cousin Philip, and Debbie, my heart aches even more for your loss. I love you all.
