“ Hopewell Funeral Home created a Tribute Video in memory of Mr. Jessy James Smith

Hopewell Funeral Home - January 10, 2012 at 12:00 AM

“ We only got to know Jessy last summer but he made an impression on us. He was not afraid to admit that he had made mistakes but, to me, was the poster child for remorse and "wanting-to-do-better". He came to church with us and brought us much joy. Jessy impressed me and i liked him a lot. His generosity was wonderful and I am so sad to hear of his parting and it really affected me when I heard of it. Jessy brought a special kind of joy to our home and we pray God will bless him and be gracious to him.

Jessy was someone who would give the shirt off his back to help you. He always had a smile to offer and a hand to lend. He was so humorous and always made me laugh. You just never knew what to expect him to say next. My fav though will always be that everytime I was discussing something with him or Mandi or whoever and he was around, he would just speak up and say, "Your hair looks nice today Miss. Tami!" so as to change the subject and lighten the mood, then it just got so he would say it everytime he saw me. It is an expression around here that will stay forever now, just as our memories of Jessy will. I am deeply sadden by his early departure from life. If I could turn back time, I would do so in a second to change the circumstances. Thank you Jessy for caring for Amanda and being her friend when she needed you. I know that you had your ups and downs, but that is a part of life. Without you two meeting we would have never had the opportunity to meet you. We here in Michigan, and I am speaking for many, will miss you dearly. RIP Jessy~ I pray for your family and friends that God sends his Angels to surround and comfort them all. God Bless~ Tami
