“ Hey, How are you all doing? I wish I could have went with mama & daddy to Florida, but with work and all I just couldn't get off at that time. I was so sorry to hear about Uncle J.R. I have wonderful memories of both him and Aunt Lurlean. Wow, how time flies and quickly things change in our life. I don't like change very much, but we can't get around it and live on this earth. Mama said the service was very nice. She said you all couldn't find Sue. I hate that. I know Uncle J.R. is in a much better place and that is the peace that we draw from, although no matter how old our parent's get - we do not want to let them go. Just want you to know that you all have been in my thoughts and prayers and I love you dearly. Allyson###imported-begin##Allyson Johnson###imported-end##

“ I would like express my sincerest condolences at the loss of Uncle JR. He was a great person and I will always think fondly of him. It was always fun to visit with him and Aunt Lurlean when they came up to see my mom. I haven't told mother yet but I will this week. I am sure she will be sadden to hear of his death. I know nothing can take the pain away but I hope it brings all of you comfort to know that people are praying for all of you. I am one of those people. I am also sorry that I could not come down. With Aunt Lurlean I was pregnant and sick unable to travel. With Uncle JR my son went to the ER with Pneumonia and was very sick. I was not comfortable leaving while he was sick. However, I have been there in spirit and prayers. I pray God will bring you peace in the days to come. Love, Connie Livingston Lashley###imported-begin##Connie Lashley###imported-end##
