“ I will definitely miss my daily visits from Jim at the Church Office. He always had a way of brightening my day and what a great smile he had. I also had the privilege of working with all three of the Wise men at the 1914 Strawberry Festival Booth for the past 7 years and it was the best time ever. What honest, hardworking and Christ loving men they have been. Prayer are lifted up for the entire family and may you all feel God wrap His loving arms around each of you. Jim will never be forgotten,
Love you,
Alice, Joe & Tiffany Battcher and Carolyn Christenberry

“ Not too long ago, Uncle Jim served me strawberry shortcake at the festival, it was so good to see him. Saw him and Aunt Geraldine at Parksdale last year. He still looked good.
