

Mr. Jimmy Hurley

March 21, 1936 - July 16, 2020

Jimmy Hurley, 84, of Lake Wales, Florida, born in Bloomingdale on March 21, 1936, entered into eternal rest at his home at Lake Rosalie on July 16, 2020. He was retired electrical supervisor and assistant terminal manager for CSX Railroad, a special deputy for Lee County Sheriff's Department, and a volunteer firefighter for the Boca Grande Fire Department. He loved his family, and enjoyed NASCAR. He was preceded in death by his wife, Gwendolyn "Toby" Hurley. He is survived by his daughters, Carolyn Jenkins (Gary) of Dover, and Darlene Hurley of Gainesville, Georgia; grandchildren, April Thompson (Richard), and Daniel Gann; and great-grandchildren, Sadie, Ella, and Landon. A graveside service will be held Wednesday, July 22 at 11:00 A.M. at Bloomingdale Cemetery, 3301 Bloomingdale Avenue, Valrico. Expressions of condolence at HopewellFuneral.com.

We will surely miss seeing Jim across the canal and how he always made sure to talk to our grandson when he was fishing off the dock! Save us a place on the river for fishing. Ralph and Cindy Watson

“ Hi Carolyn, & Darlene, Your families are close at heart and uplifted in prayer. I'm so thankful for the memories of celebrating Jesus' love at Bloomingdale. Your Grandpa, Gordon, & my Papa worked together to build the Church, in 50s. I live in Jackson Co. GA. Would love to hear from you. Gail Clark-Fly. Aldine's daughter, Ray, Harry, & Billy's sister. email: vgmosca@aol.com
