“ Uncle Joe was a wonderful man. He could always make you laugh or scare the mess out of me in the boat. He will be missed deeply and was loved by so many. He was who he was and never tried to be someone else. He was devoted to Aunt Carolyn and his family. All of us nieces and nephews have grand memories of times together with Uncle Joe. I take comfort in knowing that one day we will all be together in our eternal home. Until then we will laugh and hold onto those Memories. Love you all!

“ My Daddy overcame very humble beginnings by working hard, educating himself, guarding his reputation, and most of all living for The Lord. He found ways to make my "little girl dreams" come true and as I grew up he took time and found ways to give me affirmation and let me know he was proud of me. He was devoted to Mama as she was to him. My heart is broken and I will miss him always but I rejoice that he Knew Jesus and his spirit is no longer captive to a failing body.
