“ Annette, Terry, Connie and Paula,

My heart goes out to you for the loss of your father in this life. I know all of you are aware that he is with our heavenly Father and is much happier. And although you know, you still miss him. Cherish the memories and bond with each other. Families are so important to be able to share your memories, laugh, cry, love and forgive.

May the Lord continue to bless you and your families,

*Love,
Wendy Lee*

“ Bro. Joe I have known you for many years. You where one of the kindest men I have ever known. I remember how many times you have stopped me at the entrance of the church and ask me when was I going to sing again? I also remember planning one of the first dinners at Youmans and I asked you could you bring a cake? You responded no one has ever asked me to help before, yes I can, and you smiled. Come that Sunday you brought 2 of the most beautiful cakes! I loved your sweet and kind soul. You will be missed. Love Sis. Debbie an Bro. Kerry Johnson.

“ Memories are made to comfort us when we no longer have each other. May those memories that you have shared comfort you all at this time. Be joyous in the fact that your loved one has gone to heaven as has been promised us by our Saviour.
