“ *John was among a circle of men that i was able to be apart of in my early career at his workcenter we knew as BAYEAST, John was a large part of an effort to set a foot print towards our livelihood that so many of us has prospered from, because of men like him. We had alot of goodtimes back then , many stories we still tell about him , Thanks John being part of probably the better times of my life and will not forget what you left us brother, Long Live The Old School BAYEAST BOYS -you were one of the best ... “ I worked with Johnny when I became a cable splicer and relocated to Bay East with GTE in the early to mid 80's. Johnny was one of the first journeyman splicers they put me with to learn the trade. Johnny was a great guy and always fun to just be around and he was great to work with. My sincere condolences and prayers for your entire family. I know he will be greatly missed.
