“ Sean was only 4 years older than I and as kids I thought he was so cool! As adults we did not see each other often but I always enjoyed his company and was so blessed by his desire to arrange the family reunion just over a week ago. He was in great spirits and I know he enjoyed it immensely, as did all who came. So hard to believe he is gone. Good lesson for the rest of us: Cherish family and never miss an opportunity to connect and share your love. My prayers are for Doris and Shannon and Patti as they miss this great guy.

“ I am so grateful for Sean's persistence to getting the Family back together as we reunited recently at the Elk's Lodge. It was fantastic to see everyone and catch up on old memories and so forth.

I was reminded of the camping trip that Sean, Doris & I went on in my early 20's. Sean rented a small RV and I used my van to haul it up to the Smokey Mountain. We all spent the better part of the week eating, drinking, hiking and just enjoying the wilderness.

As fate would have it I wound up living in the foothill's to the Smokies about 20 years later.

We'll miss you Sean and see you on the other side. Godspeed.
