“ Dear Lizetta and Family,
We were very distressed to hear about Theodore. I have wonderful memories of the days together when we were growing up. I always enjoyed the times when I could stay with him and his family. He had such a quick wit and it was always a joy to be around him. It was also a pleasure when I was able to attend services at Salem when he became a minister. We will miss him very much, but we celebrate his life and rejoice that he will be with his beloved Lord.
Love To All,
Donald and Eloise
