“ My Pop's oh how I miss you so much. You are an amazing man Mister. I go through parts of town and everyone has such good memories of you. This world feels very different without you. You are my real life hero. I'm wearing your Gator Jacket now. It's as close as I can get. I love you Pop's!! Rest easy, Rest easy!

“ Jay and I spent our junior and high school years together. We played on the same football teams and we shared times just having a good time in life. I always enjoyed the welcome that was his home. I enjoyed the peace at Jay's home and surely I timed events there when his Mother was just finishing up making a Great LUNCH! But:, Jay, Leon, Sidney, Jiggs, Et. Al also managed to do that with my Mother as well. After retiring from the USAF and returning home, I was able to reestablish our friendship with meetings at Wal-Mart where I worked. Later we enjoyed sharing Wednesdays at lunch at Johnson's BBQ with our other friends. I will miss Jay Sparkman as I miss my brothers Paul and Carl. Go now my friend and celebrate the Peace of Heaven. You earned this.
