“ I'm still having a hard time accepting the fact my friend is no longer with us. Having met him eons ago in the detention realm, I knew from our first introduction this man was a good man, someone who shared my beliefs about life, friendships and so much more. Over the years we became really close. We shared great times in the transportation unit and if anyone ever had your back, it was Johnny. To his wonderful family, please know I feel your grief and grieve with you. You loved this man for so many reasons and I loved this man because he was a "true" friend in so many ways. May God bless each of you as the healing process continues.

“ I will never forget him! Way back in 1985 there was a party at Cindy Pierce's house. After the party a few people went to the movies. A few of us hung back, toilet papered cars and innocently wrote on Johnny's truck...took pics and laughed laughed laughed. Around 1 am said truck pulls up in the drive...my parents asleep...dogs are barking. I came out in the yard as Johnny jumped out of the truck...literally yelling. I'm trying bro tell him my Dad would hear him and get up and I would get my tail beat...to which he said "Well that's fine with me cause I'm getting my % beat when I take MY DADS TRUCK HOME!!" THANKFULLY...the VERY sweet and level headed Richard Moore pulls up behind him, got out and convinced him to go home. The soap was an issue when Johnny got home. I felt really awful and it took a while before he would talk to me💔. Several years later, I ran into Johnny at O'BRIEN's and we both cracked up about the memory! Johnny was an amazing person with a great sense of humor and he truly had a heart of gold! I am so blessed to have known him. Prayers to his family. May the Lord comfort you at this very difficult time.

“ So sorry we won't be able to make it to Johnny's service. As we mentioned to John and Danny when we stopped by, we so hated to hear about the accident. Sending our deepest sympathy to his daughters and their families along with John and Jan, and Danny plus his family.

“ Johnny and I were fishing on the bank of the canal behind Faulkberg jail one night when a big head popped up out of the water about ten feet from us. We knew it was a gator ! I ran up the embankment and as I turned around Johnny was sitting on our cooler when he fell backwards and his feet were running in the air like he was in a marathon and he was saying some bad words !! Turned out to be a "manatee". We promised to not say anything about it. What a wonderful MAN ! God bless you Johnny!!
