“ It was as I went online to replace my fallen-apart -from-use copy of Jon Courson's New Testament Commentary that I discovered Jon's life ended here on earth, then instantly began again in heaven just a couple of months ago! Jon's life-long testimony and the daily encouragement I have received from his Old and New Testament Application Commentaries have done more to keep this ol' 78-year-old Christian man's walk with God on course day in and day out for the past dozen or so years of my life. My early morning devotions, consisting of a chapter a day or so in God's Word, followed by Jon's commentary on that/those same chapter(s) is something I always look forward to. And I know that I'm just one of many, many thousands of Christians whose lives have been touched and blessed eternally by this great man of God. I'm crying, but out of happiness and love for him. I can hardly wait to meet him and hope it won't be too long!

“ Jon was a quiet giant of deep Christian faith and a cherished member of our small men's church group. We shall remember his deep insights and miss him. God bless you, my friend. I know you are looking down on us and wishing us all well. Is there a lot of chocolate and ice cream in heaven?
