“ Dear Greg & Family, We were so very sorry to hear about your son. My brother Robert always speaks so kindly of you and your family when you were boys together. These are terrible times that we live in, but we can trust our Lord's promise of a better day when the meek will inherit the earth and only the righteous will live here. The scriptures have comforted my family in times of sorrow - I hope they will sustain and strengthen you as well. “ Dear Greg and Family, I'm so sorry to hear of your loss. Iris told me the sad news and I came to share something I recall when death has taken my loved ones. You may remember it too. When Jesus said that he is the resurrection and the life; when he told Martha and Mary that their brother Lazarus was 'sleeping'; and when he promised that someday he would call out to those in the memorial tombs and they would all rise to life again. These are promises that help me. I hope they also help you. I recall clearly how much you, Bobby and Wayne used to enjoy life as young men, and though I never knew your son, I feel you must have imparted that loving spirit to him. Again, I am sorry for your loss. If ever I can be a comfort to you, please don't hesitate to email me.##imported-begin##Shirley Jolly Stevenson##imported-end##

“ I've only known Jon a few years...being the secretary for Local 1000. He was always so polite to me. He was a joy to know... and I'm so thankful I did get to know him. My thoughts and prayers go out to the Murrow family. Thinking of you always. Jaylene##imported-begin##Jaylene Wheeler##imported-end##
