“ Thank you for always loving me as your own Tio Lupe. I remember being little sitting in your semi truck and you handing me cash just to see my face light up with a smile. You were such a caring and loving person to our family. You would give the shirt off your back for anyone in need. Always surrounded by family and joy. You are so loved and will be missed so much. Look over my dad and protect him, he will need his best friend looking out for him still 💔 love you

“ As kids, we would be working up in North Carolina for the summer and every time Tio Lupe would come and pick up a load. He would start honking his tractor horn from the entrance of the ranch for letting letting us kids know that he was coming. He always has some kind a joke to tell us or start making fun of us in someway. I always look forward to see him drive his big truck down that dirt road. Love you tio and you will be missed
