“ *Joe was a great skydiver, a talented performer and made any gathering better with his quick smile and keen sense of humor. Some of the best times at Barnstormers Airshows/ Kings Dominion included Joe and 40 years on I still treasure the memories of those days.
Thanks Joe and Godspeed.*

My "net" skills non-existent or I would not be so tardy. Joe was an extraordinary talent: style, accuracy, RW--you name it --he had innate skills to match the best I've seen EVER. Our loss at such an early age is compounded by his equally laudable "natural talent" : He was a damp good man. A brother I, like so many, were so privileged to know. Gods peed, indeed.

“ I first saw Joe in a play that he was doing, I believe it was "Miss Firecracker" in Plant City in 1996 or 97. I spoke to him afterward and complimented him on his performance. I was very impressed with how naturally he acted and reacted and delivered his lines. We subsequently both appeared together for the first time in May, 1998's PCE production of "Harvey". Over the years we did many plays together. I always enjoyed and appreciated all of his performances and I came to appreciate him as a person. I came to know Joe as a solid, decent person that you could count on. If he told you he would do something, he did it. And he did it to the best of his ability. I thought that I got to know him pretty well, but I don't remember him telling me he jumped out of airplanes. We talked often and I hope he enjoyed my company as much as I did his. I know that I will miss him, because I am beginning that process as I write. May you rest in peace, old friend. God be with you and those you leave behind. Condolences to his wife, Brenda, his family and all of his friends. Larry Sprinkle
