“ JoAnn and I loved fishing together with our spouses. We always had a great time together doing that. We also loved going to eat at Circles restaurant in Apollo Beach. I remember having great hair cuts and colors from her several years ago. She was always great to have conversations with over the years. I'm sure she is an angel in the sky when I look up every evening and morning. Sending prayers and blessings to Christine and Emma for taking such good care of her too.
