“ Joy was true to her namesake. We will never forget her smile, her laughter or her loving kindness. When Debbie and I were at last year's Pink Lodge, Joy was so giddy with excitement, She exclaimed to me, "Oooh David, you are in soooo much trouble!" When she had heard that Debbie had been selected to become Grand Warder, she wrote both Debbie and I into the Pink Lodge script. It surprised us both. She laughed and smiled when they called out my name and brought me up on charges in the Pink Lodge. But this is the type of women she was, always giving. Debbie and I will miss Joy deeply and though the Ford family grieves, know that we are remembering you and honoring Joy's memory.

“ Joy could walk into a room full of strangers and before she left them she would have them all laughing with her contagious laugh. She would light up the room with her conversation and wit. She never met a stranger. She would help anyone who needed it no questions asked. She loved her family very much, including those who didn't deserve her love. Above all, she took care of her Mother (my Aunt Alice) at home til my aunt passed away, she did this because she was a devoted daughter. I will miss our long talks, we laughed and cried together. Sweet girl, RIP til we meet again....on the other side.SWEET BUELAH LAND... Love you from Sherry Kaker, Love , Michael and Sherry Carlisle
