“ Sending our love on this most sad days. Thoughts and prayer for the entire Springer family and Joyce's beloved Husband, Children and Grandchildren. May you feel her presence all around you, may she show you signs she is still here to comfort you during this time of grief. Hoping you have faith that one day we will all be together again soon in heaven. I hope you find the support in the arms of loved one near by, and in the words of the ones who wish they were there to be there for you. Joyce, you are deeply loved and will be forever missed. Sincerely, Julie & Richard Fortin, cousin from Maine

“ I have such fond memories of the Springer clan coming up to visit with us every summer. There was always so much joy in our home during their visits. Distance and time kept us apart until we all got on Facebook a few years back. Cousin Dick Parker organized 2 family get togethers that brought us physically together. Last summer I was able to spend a day at the beach with The Springer girls and some of their famly. It was full of much joy and laughter again and now is such a precious memory. In September, Joyce, called me to compare remodeling stories! She was so proud of her son and her husband and what they did and were doing for her in her home. I am thinking and praying for you all today as you honor her life and say good bye!She was a precious soul! Love, cousin Joanna

“ Our deepest sympathy to Joyce's family. We met Joyce only a few times, but wish we would have known her as well as we know some of her siblings. She would have been a joy to know as a close friend. May you all be comforted by the knowledge and the anticipation of the coming Grand Reunion.

I chose the Yellow candle because a yellow rose represents friendship....so the yellow candle represents our friendship and love. I miss you sooo much....I wake up in the middle of the night and I remember, I won't see you for a while...and it hurts so bad....there are soooo MANY who are feeling exactly the same way.....and even more so, her dear Donny and children and grandchildren, and sisters and brothers and their families....Oh Joyce, why did you have to go so soon????? I know I'll not have the answer to that question till we see each other in heaven.....and I KNOW God KNOWS BEST...but this is one of those times we, in our finite minds and hearts just don't understand...but accept with a Faith in our God that He has proven many times over, that WE CAN TRUST HIS WAYS.....I love you dear cousin <3

“ My sympathy and prayers for Joyce's family and for my cousins Russel, Clarence, Linda and Sharon. I loved Joyce and all of you since we were kids and spent so many fun summers in Maine. I loved her laughter and her love of life and goodness to people. She leaves us all with the challenge to love our families, to cherish life and to love Jesus like she did. God be with you and comfort you with His love and peace. Love you, Cousin, Natalie Miller Kuchta

“ Our sympathy and prayers, and love to all of Joyce's family. Knowing Joyce for 40 years and she has always been caring, honest and a giving person. She was in the right line of work all these years for her personality, always smiling, uplifting others, and lending a hand. She will be terribly missed by so many. We're sure her reward is great in heaven.

“ Joyce was well named - a joy to all who knew her. Her love and sense of humour will be missed. I had lost track of her over the years and had been enjoying reconnecting through FB and seeing her and her family. Blessings and comfort to family and friends.

“ Our deepest sympathy to the family of Joyce Brown. Please accept our sincere condolence for the loss of your loved one. Life will be quite a challenge without them in our lives. Please, know that Jehovah God is a strong refuge for those grieving because of the loss of a family member. He is near to those who are experiencing distress (Psalms 9:9). May you have strength and peace during this time of great loss.
