“ Doad (and Elaine) were my closest neighbors in NC for many years. He was a soft spoken gentle man and always willing to help. I've not seen him for many years, but will always remember his kindness.

Elaine and family - you have my very deepest sympathy.

“ Prayers to the family.

Doad was a very kind, sweet man. We met them back in the 70's when my mom Dian met Elaine and became friends. I remember going to their house in Gibsonton and swimming, going to the ball field to watch the boys play ball. They were always so much fun and very kind, loving people.
